Recap: Nurideen Lindsey led four Broncs in double figures scoring with 26 points as Rider posted a 79-54 victory over Robert Morris in the 2012-13 season opener for both programs at Alumni Gymnasium. Guard Coron Williams would give RMU an early 6-2 lead thanks to a pair of three-pointers, but a 12-2 run by the Broncs that featured a pair of layups from Lindsey and four points from Daniel Stewart allowed Rider to open up a 14-8 advantage with 12:28 to play in the first half. Forward Lucky Jones would hit a pair of free throws to help Robert Morris pull to within 14-10, but Rider would ride a 16-4 surge to take its biggest lead of the first stanza, 30-14, with 5:31 left before the break. Lindsey provided 16 points in the first half for the Broncs on 5-of-10 shooting from the floor, including 2-for-4 from long range, and a perfect 4-for-4 performance at the free-throw line. Rider eventually entered the second half with a 40-27 lead and stretched its cushion to 47-30 in the first three minutes after the break. The Colonials struggled finding any offensive rhythm in the contest, shooting just 13-for-51 (25.5 percent) on the game, including 20 percent (4-for-20) from beyond the arc.

Recap: Velton Jones was one of four Colonials to reach double figures in scoring as Robert Morris team picked up its first win of the 2012-13 season with a 74-58 victory over Fordham at the Petersen Events Center as part of the NIT Season Tip-Off. Branden Frazier hit a three-pointer and Chris Gaston converted a layup in the first two and-a-half minutes to bolster Fordham to an early 5-0 lead, but an 11-0 run gave the Colonials an 11-5 edge. RMU found its range from beyond the arc during the salvo, as Coron Williams hit a three-pointer and Karvel Anderson converted a pair. The two teams would trade baskets, but an 8-0 spurt gave Robert Morris its first double-digit cushion, 26-15. In the second half the Rams bolted out with a 10-2 run to tie the game, 39-39, at the 16:47 mark. Robert Morris called timeout, and Stephan Hawkins came through on the next possession, pulling down an offensive rebound and hitting a jumper in the paint to push the Colonials back on top, 41-39. After a stretch of almost two and-a-half minutes without either team scoring, Williams buried his fourth three-pointer to give RMU a 44-39 cushion with 13:49 to go. Frazier would make it a one-possession game for the Rams with a three-point play, but Robert Morris took control with a 15-2 run that spanned over seven minutes. Jones scored eight points during the surge, while Anderson hit a pair of jumpers.

Recap: Brad Redford's pair of free throws with 37 seconds remaining helped lift Xavier to a 61-59 victory over Robert Morris. The Colonials had three opportunities in the final 15 seconds for either the game-winning or game-tying shot but came up short each time. Karvel Anderson's three-pointer with 12 seconds left fell short, and after a scramble for the rebound, RMU retained possession thanks to a jump ball. Velton Jones followed by missing a jumper in the lane, and a desperation three-point attempt at the buzzer from Coron Williams fell short as time expired. Robert Morris trailed, 43-35, early in the second half after a dunk from Jeff Robinson of Xavier, but the Colonials never went away, closing it to a one-possession game seven times in the final 14:36 of action, including a pair of ties. Robinson would give the Musketeers a 53-47 edge at the 8:19 mark of the second half by hitting the front end of a pair of free-throw attempts, but five straight points from Anderson, including a three-pointer, helped close the Colonials to within one, 53-52, with 7:34 to go. Semaj Christon would follow with four straight points to give Xavier a 57-52 cushion, but a three-pointer from Jones and a jumper by Anderson knotted the game, 57-57, with 3:49 remaining. Again the Musketeers would jump in front, 59-57, as Dee Davis fed Robinson for a jumper, but Jones answered with his own jumper to tie the score for the sixth time on the game, 59-59, with just 1:51 to play.

Recap: Trailing, 49-44, with 9:59 to play, Robert Morris reeled off a 12-0 run to take a 56-49 lead en route to a 71-60 victory over Bowling Green as part of the NIT Season Tip-Off Consolation Round. Craig Sealey had given BGSU a 49-44 advantage after a traditional three-point play, but Anthony Myers-Pate ignited the decisive surge with a layup with 9:28 to go. Myers-Pate was also fouled on the play, and he converted the three-point play with a successful free-throw attempt to help pull RMU within 49-47. Velton Jones would push Robert Morris back on top, 50-49, with a three-pointer, and six straight points from Karvel Anderson, including a three-point play and three-pointer, helped the Colonials take a 56-49 advantage. Four straight points by A'uston Calhoun helped Bowling Green close to within 56-53 at the 6:48 mark of the second half, but RMU was able to keep the Falcons at bay. A three-pointer from Lucky Jones and four straight free throws by Velton Jones gave the Colonials a 63-55 edge with 4:17 remaining. BGSU didn't threaten after that, closing to within 66-60 after a three-pointer by Calhoun with 59 seconds left, but Robert Morris sealed the win at the free-throw line.

Making his first career start, Anderson finished 10-for-10 shooting from the floor, including 8-for-8 from beyond the arc, for a career-high 28 points in the win. Recap: Karvel Anderson's three-pointer with 4.5 seconds to play helped lift Robert Morris to a 61-58 victory over Campbell. The Camels had one last gasp, but Trey Freeman's three-pointer as time expired was off the mark, helping give the Colonials their first road win of the season. In a game that featured 14 ties and 13 lead changes, the Camels owned a 56-55 advantage with 1:19 to play after a dunk by Marvelle Harris. Lucky Jones missed a jumper on RMU's next possession, but Anderson began the final flurry by stepping in front of a Freeman pass for a steal, setting up a fastbreak opportunity. Robert Morris would convert to grab the lead back, 58-56, when Anderson hit a three-pointer from the wing with 41.9 seconds to play off a feed from Velton Jones. Harris came back to tie the game for the final time, 58-58, with a layup with 26.1 seconds remaining, setting up Anderson's game winner. On the game-winning possession, Velton Jones drove the lane before kicking out to sophomore forward Lucky Jones. Lucky Jones dumped the ball off and set a screen, giving Anderson a clear look at the basket for his game-winning three-pointer.

Recap: Robert Morris extended its winning streak to five with a 66-61 victory at Louisiana-Lafayette. Holding a 40-34 edge entering the second half, ULL used an 11-5 run to open the stanza to knot the game, 45-45, with 15:23 remaining. Russell Johnson helped stem the tide with a layup on feed from David Appolon to give RMU a 47-45 edge. The Ragin' Cajuns responded, scoring seven straight points to open up their biggest lead of the contest, 52-47, with 12:49 to go. Bryant Mbamalu started the spurt with a three-pointer, while Elfrid Payton converted a pair of layups for Louisiana-Lafayette. Robert Morris followed by switching its defense to a 2-3 zone, and it helped slow down the Ragin' Cajuns. ULL went over six minutes without converting a field goal. In the meantime, the Colonials continued to convert from deep, as three-pointers from redshirt Coron Williams, Johnson and Karvel Anderson helped Robert Morris reclaim the lead, 56-52, with 8:02 to play. Payton finally helped ULL snap its field-goal drought with a slashing layup at the 6:35 mark of the second half to pull the Ragin' Cajuns within 56-54, but Louisiana-Lafayette was never able to grab the lead back. Williams would give RMU a 62-56 edge with 2:25 to go with his fifth trifecta of the contest, but Mbamalu answered with his own three-pointer to make it 62-59 with just under two minutes left. A pair of failed offensive opportunities by both clubs led Robert Morris to gain possession with 1:15 to play, and out of a timeout Anderson buried a three-pointer with just 48 seconds on the second-half clock to give RMU a 65-56 edge.

Recap: Arkansas shot 66.7 percent (18-for-27) from the field in the second half and 52.5 percent (31-for-59) overall en route to a 79-74 victory over Robert Morris, which snapped a five-game winning streak. In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, RMU held a 41-37 advantage with 18:10 to play after Lucky Jones hit the front end of a pair of free-throw attempts to cap a 7-2 run to open the second half for the Colonials. Coron Williams and Karvel Anderson each connected from beyond the arc to bolster Robert Morris during the salvo. Arkansas battled back behind the play of Hunter Mickelson, who scored 14 of his career-high 16 points in the second half on perfect 6-for-6 shooting from the field and a 2-for-2 performance at the stripe. Mickelson would give the Razorbacks a 45-42 edge with a tip-in off an offensive rebound, and after Anthony Myers-Pate pulled the Colonials to within 45-44 with a pair of free throws, Arkansas hung a 14-4 run on RMU to open up a 59-48 advantage with 10:23 to go. Despite the deficit, Robert Morris used a 12-1 surge to close to within 64-60 at the 7:19 mark of the second half. The Colonials did most of their damage at the chalk, as Anderson went 5-for-5, Russell Johnson hit a pair and Williams buried a three-pointer. The Razorbacks looked to take control, 69-60, after a layup from Mickelson with 4:35 left, but RMU had one last charge, closing to within 71-68 thanks to an 8-2 spurt. However, Marshawn Powell was left wide open with 1:23 to play and slammed home a dunk to give Arkansas a 74-68 lead to help seal the victory.

Recap: Lucky Jones came off the bench and scored 18 points to help lead Robert Morris to a 70-55 victory over Monmouth. Ed Waite gave Monmouth an early 9-7 advantage with a pair of free throws at the 12:11 mark of the first half, but RMU scored the next seven points of the contest to open up a 14-9 edge as Jones converted a layup, Coron Williams buried a three-pointer and Stephan Hawkins converted a pair from the free-throw line. Tyrone O'Garro hit a layup to pull the Hawks to within 14-11, but Robert Morris posted an 11-4 spurt to take its first double-digit lead of the contest, 25-15. Jones started the run with a layup, while Russell Johnson contributed four points. The advantage swelled to 29-17 in favor of RMU, but a three-pointer at the buzzer from Jesse Steele helped Monmouth close to within 29-21 at halftime. The Hawks couldn't sustain the momentum to open the second half, however, as the Colonials opened the stanza on a 10-3 run to push their cushion to 39-24. Monmouth was never able to get its deficit into single digits the rest of the contest, and anytime the Hawks found life with a small surge, Robert Morris had an answer. Andrew Nicholas trimmed MU's deficit to 39-28 with 14 minutes to play with a dunk, but RMU responded with an 8-0 run that featured five points from Jones to open up a 47-28 lead. Jones also gave the Colonials their biggest advantage, 51-30, with 9:02 remaining thanks to a three-point play after a layup and foul by O'Garro.

Recap: Robert Morris stretched its winning streak to three games with a 66-62 victory over Sacred Heart at the Charles L. Sewall Center. Playing without its top two scorers, guards Velton Jones and Karvel Anderson, due to injury, RMU pulled out the win using a seven-man rotation as four different Colonials established a season high in minutes played. Sacred Heart jumped out to a 12-7 lead at the 16:48 mark of the first half after a three-pointer from Steve Glowiak, but the Colonials used a 14-3 surge to take a 21-15 advantage. Lucky Jones started the run with a jumper and scored four points during the spurt, while David Appolon led the way with five points. The Colonials held the lead the rest of the half, although the Pioneers closed to within 24-23 after a jumper from De'Aires Tate with 4:18 left before the break. RMU eventually took a 29-26 edge at halftime on the strength of 41.4 percent (12-for-29) shooting in the first half. Nick Greenbacker opened the second stanza with a pair of layups to push SHU back in front, 30-29, but a 7-2 surge gave the Colonials the lead right back, 36-32. Lucky Jones capped the run with a three-point play after a jumper and foul by Louis Montes of the Pioneers. The back-and-forth affair continued as the Pioneers took a one-point lead, 37-36, after a three-point play by Tate, but RMU responded with a 13-0 run to open up its first double-digit lead of the contest, 49-37. Lucky Jones scored four points, while Russell Johnson and Anthony Myers-Pate each buried three-pointers. Mike McFadden gave Robert Morris a 58-48 edge with 4:40 to go thanks to a layup, but the Pioneers didn't go away, making it a one-possession game four times in the final 2:27 of action before the Colonials sealed the win at the charity stripe.

Recap: Robert Morris concluded a two-game homestand at the Charles L. Sewall Center with its fourth consecutive win thanks to an 87-75 victory over Quinnipiac. In a carbon copy of its victory over Sacred Heart two nights prior, Quinnipiac jumped out to a 12-10 advantage at the first media timeout at the 15:11 mark by converting five of its first six shots from the field. Out of the timeout, however, Robert Morris used a 15-4 run that gave the Colonials a 25-16 edge with 11:11 left before intermission. Velton Jones was the offensive force RMU, scoring 10 straight points. The advantage eventually swelled to 32-18 in favor of Robert Morris after a three-pointer from Jones at the 8:41 mark of the first half, and the Colonials had their largest lead before halftime, 35-20, when Karvel Anderson buried a three-pointer with 5:48 to go. Jones and Anderson, who both missed RMU's victory over Sacred Heart Thursday night, combined for 22 points as the Colonials took a 41-29 lead at the break. The duo combined to shoot 80 percent (8-for-10) from the field, including 83.3 percent (5-for-6) from beyond the arc. The Bobcats shot 61.9 percent (13-for-21) in the first half but were disrupted by turnovers, committing 12 in the opening 20 minutes that Robert Morris turned into 16 points. David Appolon would extend RMU's advantage to 57-35 with 14:15 to play after a three-point play, and the Bobcats could never get their deficit into single-digits again.

Recap: Bolstered by a season-high tying 13 three-pointers, Robert Morris raced to its fifth straight win with an 84-70 victory over Saint Francis U. at DeGol Arena. Stephan Hawkins opened the scoring in the contest with a jumper off a feed from Velton Jones. Ronnie Drinnon answered for the Red Flash with a layup to knot the score, but RMU followed with a 15-5 run to open up its first double-digit advantage, 17-7, and never trailed in the contest. Jones was the main offensive catalyst during the opening salvo, scoring 11 points. Saint Francis U. closed to within 17-11 thanks to layups from Earl Brown and Drinnon, but a three-point play from Keith Armstrong pushed the advantage for Robert Morris to 20-11. That's when Karvel Anderson went to work. In a span of five minutes and 12 seconds, Anderson scored 19 consecutive points for the Colonials, draining all seven of his shots from the field, including a 5-for-5 performance from beyond the arc. RMU held a 20-13 edge before Anderson's outburst, and when the flurry was over the Colonials led, 39-20. Robert Morris eventually entered halftime with a 47-31 cushion on the strength of a 10-for-21 (47.6 percent) performance from beyond the arc and 56.3 percent (18-for-32) shooting overall. RMU's lead swelled to its largest of the contest, 54-32, in the opening minutes of the second half after a layup from Lucky Jones. The Colonials kept their advantage in double digits the entire second half in securing their 10th straight win against their in-state rival, including their ninth straight win at DeGol Arena, and tying a school record for consecutive wins against a league opponent.

Recap: Robert Morris extended its winning streak to a season-high six games by hanging on for a 76-68 victory over Mount St. Mary's at the Charles L. Sewall Center. RMU jumped out to leads of 6-4 and 14-6 in the first seven minutes of the contest before jumpers from Julian Norfleet and Kristijan Krajina pulled Mount St. Mary's within 14-10. Karvel Anderson followed by scoring eight consecutive points and Russell Johnson scored a layup to cap a 10-0 run as RMU's advantage swelled to 24-10, its largest of the first half. The Mount was able to close to within 26-19 after a pair of free throws from Josh Castellanos with 4:20 left before the break, but Robert Morris eventually entered halftime with a 33-22 cushion as Johnson scored five points in the final 2:56 of action. The Colonials kept their lead in double digits the majority of the second half, including 50-34 at the 13:10 mark after a jumper from Anderson. Robert Morris twice owned 18-point leads. Mount St. Mary's didn't go away, however, trimming a 16-point deficit with 2:01 to go down to four, 72-68, with just 24 ticks left on the second-half clock. Shivaughn Wiggins scored eight points during the Mount's 13-1 run surge, while Julian Norfleet added five points. RMU sealed the win at the charity stripe, as Anderson converted a pair with 23 seconds to go, and after a missed three-pointer by Rashad Whack of Mount St. Mary's, Johnson added a pair of his own from the chalk to complete the scoring.

Recap: Robert Morris saw its season-high six-game winning streak snapped with a 71-61 loss to St. Francis Brooklyn at the Pope P.E. Center. SFC jumped out to an early 4-0 lead, but the Colonials scored 11 unanswered points to take their first lead of the contest. Lucky Jones scored four points during the surge, while junior guard Karvel Anderson converted a three-pointer. The Terriers stayed in the game thanks to the free-throw line, as despite converting just two field goals over a six-minute span, SFC finished 7-for-8 at the stripe as part of a 9-5 spurt to tie the game, 17-17, with 9:46 left in the first half. Anthony Myers-Pate would push RMU back on top, 20-17, with a three-pointer, and a pair of free throws from Jones with 8:50 to play in the first half would give the Colonials a 22-17 edge. St. Francis Brooklyn, however, closed the half on a 20-8 run to take a 37-30 lead into intermission. Brent Jones was the main offensive force for the Terriers, scoring 10 points. Robert Morris pulled to within four on a pair of occasions in the first five minutes of the second half, but SFC seemed to have an answer every time the Colonials tried to mount a run. Akeem Johnson would give the Terriers a 49-40 advantage with 9:46 to play, but a 6-1 spurt that featured a pair of layups from Myers-Pate and a layup from Russell Johnson helped RMU close to within 50-46 with 6:53 to go. On defense, the Colonials switched to a 2-3 zone, which stifled the Terriers. Robert Morris was about to post another stand on defense, but Ben Mockford buried a three-pointer with just one second left on the shot clock to give SFC a 53-46 cushion at the 5:42 mark of the second half.

Recap: Redshirt senior guard Velton Jones connected for a floater in the lane with 9.8 seconds to play to help Robert Morris earn a split in its swing through Brooklyn, N.Y., with a 60-57 victory over LIU Brooklyn at the Wellness Center. In a game that featured nine ties and 18 lead changes, LIU owned a 57-56 advantage with 34 seconds to go. Out of an RMU timeout, Russell Johnson missed a jumper, but the Blackbirds couldn't corral the rebound, knocking it out of bounds. Faced with a second chance with 16 seconds remaining, Jones curled around a screen and converted his patented jumper in the lane to push RMU on top, 58-57. On LIU's ensuing possession, Troy Joseph turned the ball over, then sent junior guard Karvel Anderson to the free-throw line after a foul. Anderson sank both attempts to give Robert Morris a 60-57 cushion with 2.5 seconds to play. LIU Brooklyn called timeout, and Jamal Olasewere's last second three-point shot from the wing was short, giving the Colonials the win. RMU owned a 32-29 advantage at the break but trailed, 37-35, after a three-pointer from Jason Brickman at the 18:47 mark of the second half. The Colonials responded with a 14-4 surge to take their biggest lead of the game, 49-41, as Johnson scored seven points and Lucky Jones added five points.

Recap: Robert Morris returned home to the Charles L. Sewall Center and earned a 60-48 victory over in-state rival Saint Francis University for its second straight win. RMU jumped out to a 9-2 advantage in the first six and-a-half minutes of the contest thanks to three-pointers from Lucky Jones and Karvel Anderson. SFU responded with a 10-4 surge to pull within 13-12 after a layup from Greg Brown, but the Red Flash were never able to grab a lead throughout the contest. A defensive first half, the largest lead for the Colonials before the break came at the buzzer, when Anthony Myers-Pate hit a three-pointer on a feed from Anderson to give Robert Morris a 25-16 cushion at intermission. Jones would give RMU its first double-digit advantage, 27-16, in the opening minute of the second stanza with a steal and a fastbreak layup, but an 8-2 spurt by Saint Francis U. trimmed the advantage for the Colonials to 29-24. Despite the run, Saint Francis was never able to make it a one-possession game. Ronnie Drinnon helped the Red Flash close to within 42-37 with a pair of free throws at the 6:36 mark of the second half, but Robert Morris scored the next six points of the contest to open up a 48-37 edge. Redshirt Russell Johnson hit a jumper, Jones converted a pair from the stripe and Anderson added his own jumper to bolster the Colonials. RMU sealed the game at the free-throw line, converting 12 of its 13 attempts at the chalk in the final 3:55 of action.

Recap: Robert Morris converted just one field goal in the final 4:19 of action, a three-pointer from Coron Williams with just 1.4 seconds to play, and Quinnipiac pulled out a 63-61 win over the Colonials at TD Bank Sports Center. Lucky Jones gave Robert Morris a 58-56 lead with 4:19 remaining after a layup, but after a couple of empty possessions by both teams, Evan Conti tied the game with a layup at the 1:18 mark of the second half. Conti was also fouled on the play by Williams, but the free-throw attempt was off the mark, with Ike Azotam pulling down the offensive rebound for Quinnipiac. Azotam was fouled and converted both of his attempts at the stripe to give the Bobcats a 60-58 edge. Velton Jones would try to convert in the lane for the Colonials on their next possession but couldn't get the ball to fall through the cylinder, and Conti helped seal the victory with a jumper with 13 seconds to play that gave Quinnipiac a 62-58 edge. Williams would hit a three-pointer with 1.4 seconds to go, and on the ensuing inbounds pass Conti was fouled with 0.9 seconds left. Conti converted his first attempt at the stripe but purposely missed the second. Lucky Jones came down with the rebound, but his last chance heave at the basket was off the mark. RMU jumped out to an 18-4 lead in the first six and-a-half minutes of the game as Russell Johnson propelled the Colonials with 10 points. Despite the lead, Quinnipiac chipped away and took a 30-29 edge at the break as Ousmane Drame converted a layup with 41 seconds left before halftime to give the Bobcats the lead.

Recap: Robert Morris gained a split in its swing through the Constitution State....by hanging on for a 68-63 victory over Sacred Heart at the William H. Pitt Center. RMU owned a 64-48 advantage at the 3:49 mark of the second half after Russell Johnson converted a pair at the free-throw line, but the Pioneers used a 15-1 run to close within 65-63 with just 1:15 left in the contest. Shane Gibson was the main offensive force during the surge for SHU, scoring 11 points over a two-minute span, including a trio of three-pointers. His third trifecta made it a one-possession game. Karvel Anderson would fail to convert a jumper on RMU's next possession with 37 seconds to go, and Sacred Heart had two chances to tie or take the lead but couldn't convert. Steve Glowiak missed a jumper, and after Louis Montes came up with the offensive rebound, Lucky Jones came up with a steal and was immediately fouled. Jones would go 1-for-2 at the stripe to give the Colonials a 66-63 edge with 9.6 seconds remaining, and on Sacred Heart's final possession Anthony Myers-Pate fouled Phil Gaetano just inside the midcourt stripe. Gaetano missed the first attempt, then purposely missed the second, but Johnson came down with the carom for Robert Morris. He was immediately fouled and sealed the win with a pair at the free-throw line with 3.8 seconds to go.

Recap: Robert Morris got a pair of three-pointers from Karvel Anderson with under three and-a-half minutes to play to help pull away for a 77-65 victory over Monmouth. Thanks to the win, the Colonials clinched a berth in the 2013 Northeast Conference Tournament. Stephen Spinella helped Monmouth close to within 62-60 with 5:28 to go, but the Colonials used an 8-1 surge to open up a 70-61 lead as Russell Johnson hit a jumper, followed by the back-to-back three-pointers by Anderson. RMU was able to seal the victory at the free-throw line, as Anthony Myers-Pate went 6-of-6 at the chalk in the final 41 seconds. Robert Morris never trailed in the contest, opening up a 24-14 advantage at the 10:48 mark of the first half largely thanks to the outside shooting of Lucky Jones. Jones drilled five three-pointers in the first half and finished the night 6-for-7 from beyond the arc in contributing 19 points to go along with seven rebounds. Despite the double-digit lead, the Hawks closed to within 24-20 after a layup by Khalil Brown and eventually trailed at the break, 39-34. In the second half, Robert Morris pushed its cushion to 46-37 after Coron Williams converted three straight free throws, but an 8-2 run helped Monmouth make it a one-possession contest, 48-45, with 13:34 to go. Jones stemmed the tide for the Colonials with a three-pointer to give RMU a 51-45 edge, but the Hawks continued to battle, closing to within 53-52 with 10:14 remaining.

Recap: Karvel Anderson scored 17 of his game-high 24 points in the second half, including a three-pointer with 18.9 seconds to play, to help lift Robert Morris to a 77-75 victory over Bryant. Thanks to the win, the Colonials clinched the 2013 Northeast Conference regular-season championship. Knotted, 60-60, with 5:22 to play, jumpers from Lucky Jones and Velton Jones helped the Colonials take a 64-60 advantage a minute later. Alex Francis would convert a layup to pull the Bulldogs within 64-62, but Lucky Jones answered on RMU's next possession with a three-pointer to give the Colonials a 67-62 lead. Frankie Dobbs would score four straight points for Bryant to make it a one-point game, 67-66, but Velton Jones converted in the lane with two minutes remaining to make it 69-66. Dobbs would miss a layup on the next possession for the Bulldogs, and Lucky Jones came up with an offensive rebound and putback at the 1:01 mark of the second half to push the cushion for Robert Morris to 71-66. That set up a frantic final minute of regulation. It started with a Corey Manard three-pointer with 50 seconds to go that pulled Bryant within 71-69. Out of a Bryant timeout, RMU used almost the entire shot clock before Velton Jones fed Anderson in the corner, who promptly buried his attempt from deep with 18.9 seconds left to again make it a five-point lead for the Colonials, 74-69. Vlad Kondratyev converted a dunk for Bryant on the other end with 11.4 seconds to play to pull the Bulldogs within 74-71, and Lucky Jones was fouled on the ensuing inbounds pass. He hit both to give Robert Morris a 76-71 edge, but Dyami Starks came through for the Bulldogs, hitting a deep three-pointer with 6.2 seconds to again pull Bryant within two, 76-74. Bryant fouled on the next inbounds pass by RMU, with Anthony Myers-Pate hitting the front end of two attempts at the stripe. Maynard was fouled with 0.2 seconds to play by Mike McFadden, who was trying to go for a steal. Maynard made his first attempt at the stripe but purposely missed the second, and Russell Johnson sealed the win with a rebound.

Recap (AP): A down season for defending national champion Kentucky ended with one final disappointment. Mike McFadden hit two free throws with 8.7 seconds remaining and Robert Morris stunned the defending national champions, 59-57, in the opening round of the NIT, sending the disjointed Wildcats into an uncertain offseason less than a year after cutting down the nets in New Orleans. RMU led almost the entire way, never blinking in a rare visit from one of college basketball's Goliaths. Then again, this isn't the same Kentucky team that roared through the NCAAs behind stars Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist. This batch of Wildcats (21-12) hasn't been the same since center Nerlens Noel went down with a devastating knee injury. Kentucky lost six of its final 10 games, the last one coming just a couple of 3-pointers away from the house Calipari grew up in. The Wildcats came close. Calipari opted not to call timeout after McFadden's second free throw but Kyle Wiltjer's 3-pointer before the buzzer bounced harmlessly off the rim, sending hundreds of students onto the court following the biggest win in school history. The triumph took some of the pain out of a heartbreaking end to the regular season. Robert Morris cruised to the Northeast Conference title but lost to Mount St. Mary's in the conference tournament. The defeat dashed the Colonials hopes of making the NCAAs, though the chance to play Kentucky hardly felt like a letdown. Lucky Jones led Robert Morris with 15 points but was ejected for a flagrant foul on Archie Goodwin with 3:41 to play. Kentucky, which trailed by 13 in the second half, managed to tie it twice but could never grab the lead. Robert Morris scored the game's first 10 points while the Wildcats stumbled their way through a series of miscues and appeared rattled. Yet the Colonials never folded, making 8-of-12 shots during one stretch to move back in front 49-36 then holding off a late Kentucky push.

Recap (AP): A 12-4 run in the final 3:58 of action allowed Providence to pull away from Robert Morris in a second round game of the 2013 National Invitation Tournament, as the Friars went on for a 77-68 win over the Colonials at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. RMU concluded its 2012-13 campaign with an overall record of 24-11. Vincent Council scored five straight points during the deciding run for the Friars, including a three-point play with 3:08 left that bolstered Providence to a 70-64 advantage. Mike McFadden would pull the Colonials to within 70-66 with a layup, but the Friars continued to add points at the chalk, as a pair from Kris Dunn with 2:11 to go again gave PC a six-point lead, 72-66. Robert Morris came up empty on its next possession, and a Lee Goldsborough layup with 1:16 remaining helped the Friars take a commanding 74-66 edge. Just as it had in its first round game of the NIT against Kentucky, RMU jumped out to a big lead against the Friars, as five points from Russell Johnson gave the Colonials an early 9-2 lead. Providence settled down and came back to tie the score, 9-9, but a three-pointer from Coron Williams followed a McFadden jumper to help push Robert Morris back on top, 15-9. The first half featured five ties and four lead changes. Bryce Cotton's three-pointer at the buzzer sent the game tied into halftime, 34-34. Providence looked to pull away in the first 10 minutes of the second half and owned a 59-51 advantage with 8:24 left, but an 11-2 run gave Robert Morris a 62-61 edge at the 6:11 mark of the second half. Karvel Anderson started the spurt with a three-pointer and hit a pair during the run, while Johnson gave the Colonials the lead with a three-pointer of his own. Providence called timeout after Johnson's triple, and out of the break took the lead for good thanks to a pair of free throws from Council with 5:19 left.

In the Beginning ...

Junior College History (1963-76)

The year was 1963. It marked Robert Morris University's first season in intercollegiate basketball. At the time known as Robert Morris Junior College, the school looked to Gus Krop to build a tradition.

Until 1962, the University fielded a club basketball squad. But in 1963, Krop answered athletic director Bill Day's call to coach a Colonial varsity program. Thirteen years and 287 victories resulted.

Krop and Chick Davies, who is Duquesne University's all-time leader with 314 victories from 1925-48, originally decided to split the duties.

Krop brought with him solid credentials, including four state Catholic titles in 18 years at St. Casimir's in Pittsburgh. When Davies had to bow out before the first season, that left Krop, the former chief of parks police in Pittsburgh and retired RMU director of campus police, to run the show.

Run it he did. Robert Morris went 19-5 (.792) his first season and was third regionally. In 1964-65, the Colonials went 26-2 (.929) and qualified for the National Junior College Athletic Association Tournament. The 1968-69 team won 30 games before losing the national title game to Paducah (Ky.), 79-76.

The program thrived under Krop, indeed, and likewise under Charles Sewall, the University's president from 1967-89.

Krop retired from coaching in 1976, three years after being diagnosed with diabetes, with a record of 287-58 (.832).

The next year, the RMU program moved up to NCAA Division I.

Looking back, Krop coached nine All-Americans, among them Don Mackey, Perry Johnson, Cleveland Edwards (a former head coach at UNLV and assistant at Marshall) and Ron Hightower. Earl Cureton, a Colonial for two seasons, including one under Krop, played 13 years in the National Basketball Association (NBA), winning NBA titles with the Philadelphia 76ers (1983) and the Houston Rockets (1994).

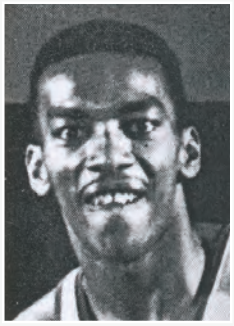

Krop's honors include being a charter member of the RMU Athletic Hall of Fame, a member of the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame and the 1987 dedication of Gus Krop Gym, the 1,100-seat facility in the current John Jay Center on campus, where Krop won many of his games.

"Most fulfilling for me was when a kid did well after college," Krop said. "You knew you had a part in it. We provided an avenue for kids to get their grades up and then go to a four-year school. That is something they couldn't have done before."

At the age of 88, Krop passed away in July of 2005.

Northeast Conference Championships

The Colonials have won seven Northeast Conference Tournament titles and eight regular-season crowns since moving to the NCAA Division I level in 1976. Robert Morris was independent until 1980, when it joined the ECAC South Conference. League play began in 1981 with the ECAC Metro Conference, which became the Northeast Conference in 1988. The Colonials have tallied a 34-22 (.607) record in conference tournaments in their 32 years of conference play.

1982 NCAA Tournament

17-13 Overall • 9-5 ECAC Metro • South Division Champions

In just its sixth year of existence as a Division I program after making the move from the junior college ranks, Robert Morris announced its arrival by claiming the inaugural ECAC Metro Championship thanks to an 85-84 victory over LIU Brooklyn at the famed Brooklyn Paramount in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Phil Coles etched his name into RMU basketball lore, grabbing the rebound of a missed free throw by teammate Greg Junk with a second left and converting the game-winning basket to give the Colonials the win.

Robert Morris was led by a pair of guards during the season in sophomores Chipper Harris and Forest Grant, who combined to score 943 points while adding totals of 316 assists and 201 steals.

Harris averaged 17.6 points, 4.3 assists and 4.0 steals per game, while Grant supplied RMU with averages of 13.8 points, 6.3 assists and 2.7 steals per contest.

Forward Tom Parks was named the Most Valuable Player (MVP) of the ECAC Metro Tournament after providing Robert Morris with 21 points off the bench on 9-of-12 shooting from the field in the championship game against LIU Brooklyn. In that contest the Colonials were led by Grant, who played a full 40 minutes and supplied RMU with 26 points, two assists, two blocks and two steals.

Robert Morris advanced to its first NCAA Tournament after the win over the Blackbirds, squaring off with defending national champion Indiana in the first round. Despite a 94-62 loss to the Hoosiers, the foundation for excellence with the RMU men's basketball program was successfully set.

Legendary Indiana head coach Bobby Knight visited the Robert Morris locker room after the game, something that Parks will never forget.

"He told us that we had nothing to hang our heads about," Parks said. "He said that we battled the defending national champions, and he expected us to work hard to get back there the next year and win a few games. That was a class act."

1983 NCAA Tournament

23-8 Overall • 12-2 ECAC Metro • South Division Champions

Robert Morris enjoyed winning the inaugural ECAC Metro Tournament title in 1982 so much, the Colonials decided to do it again in 1983.

Once again led by the play of guards Chipper Harris and Forest Grant, RMU began its surge in early January. A 73-69 overtime victory on the road at Cleveland State began a stretch in which the Colonials won 19 games in a stretch of 20 contests.

In the championship game of the ECAC Metro Tournament on RMU's home floor at John Jay Center, the Colonials grabbed a 79-67 victory over LIU Brooklyn to claim their second straight title and automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Harris was the offensive sparkplug for Robert Morris, averaging 28.7 points in three games en route to Most Valuable Player (MVP) accolades. In the title game against the Blackbirds, Harris scored 32 points on 11-of-19 shooting from the field and a 10-for-15 performance at the free-throw line while compiling seven rebounds, four assists and five steals.

RMU opened the NCAA Tournament in Dayton, Ohio, with a play-in game against Georgia Southern. It was an opponent the Colonials were familiar with, as the Eagles had garnered a 66-63 win over Robert Morris earlier in the season as part of the Mountaineer Classic in Charleston, W. Va., just one week before Christmas.

This time, however, behind a combined 33 points from Grant and Harris, Robert Morris earned a 64-54 win over Georgia Southern. The win over the Eagles set up a date with Purdue at the Sun Dome in Tampa, Fla. The Colonials and Boilermakers were knotted, 53-53, late in the game.

"I still remember his name," former head coach Matt Furjanic said. "Steve Reid. I'll never forget it."

Reid hit the game-winning jumper that lifted Purdue to a 55-53 victory and paced the Boilermakers with 20 points.

"They were trying to get the ball into their big kid and we were playing zone," Furjanic said, recounting Purdue's final possession. "Reid pulls up from, to be realistic, about 30 feet and puts up a shot. I almost cheered the shot at the time because I thought it was a terrible decision, but it went in."

"Playing a top seed like Purude to a two-point game is something I'm still proud of," former forward Tom Parks said.

1989 NCAA Tournament

21-9 Overall • 12-4 NEC • Regular-Season Champions

The tone of the 1988-89 season at Robert Morris was set in the first game. The Colonials traveled to Morgantown, W. Va., grabbed a 43-40 halftime lead over West Virginia and eventually posted a 75-67 victory over the Mountaineers behind 27 points from senior forward Vaughn Luton.

"Robert Morris deserves a lot of credit," WVU Head Coach Gale Catlett said. "We had to get out of the press because they were killing us with easy baskets. Overall, they outhustled us."

Picked to finish fifth in the Northeast Conference Preseason Coaches Poll, RMU earned its third NEC Tournament title in eight years behind the play of Luton, a solid supporting cast and the inspiration of junior forward Anthony Dickens, who missed almost a year and-a-half due to a hip injury that threatened to derail his career.

In the NEC Tournament, RMU opened play with its old nemesis, LIU Brooklyn, posting a 63-52 victory to advance to the championship game. Against Fairleigh Dickinson in the title contest, it was Dickens who provided Robert Morris with another fairy tale ending.

Trailing, 66-65, with under 10 seconds to play, Dickens grabbed an offensive rebound off an errant shot and was fouled going to the rim, sending him to the free-throw line. Dickens sank both free throws, giving Robert Morris a 67-66 victory and its third berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Luton scored 25 points in the championship game of the NEC Tournament against the Knights and was tabbed Most Valuable Player (MVP). He became just the second player in the NEC's short history to be named both the NEC Player of the Year and NEC Tournament MVP and on the 1988-89 campaign averaged 17.0 points and 6.9 rebounds per game while shooting 55.7 percent (215-for-386) from the field.

In the 1989 NCAA Tournament, RMU dropped a 94-60 decision to an Arizona squad that featured future NBA first round pick Sean Elliott and future MLB American League stolen base champion Kenny Lofton. In his final game in a Robert Morris uniform, Luton led the Colonials against the Wildcats with 23 points.

In addition to the exploits of Luton, sophomore guard Scott Shepherd averaged 12.3 points per game in 1988-89 on the strength of an RMU single-season school record 93 three-pointers, while sophomore forward Tyrone Steals started all 30 games and produced 10.7 points per contest.

Sophomore guard Andre Boyd guided the offensive attack for Robert Morris, dishing out 97 assists (3.2 per game) while scoring 8.7 points per game. Boyd, Luton, Shepherd and Steals each started all 30 games on the year for the Colonials.

1990 NCAA Tournament

22-8 Overall • 12-4 NEC • Regular-Season Champions

Losing just one senior from a squad that won the Northeast Conference Tournament championship in 1989, Robert Morris set itself up for another run at the title in 1989-90.

For the second straight year, the tone was set in the season opener. A year after traveling to Morgantown, W. Va., and stunning the Mountaineers on their home court, the Colonials did it again.

Trailing by five at halftime, 33-28, RMU again pulled out a come-from-behind victory, earning a 67-64 win over West Virginia behind 16 points from junior guard Andre Boyd and a double-double (11 points, 10 rebounds) from senior forward Anthony Dickens.

The win over WVU propelled the Colonials to a 5-1 start to the season, and RMU eventually entered the conference season with a mark of 8-3. Despite opening the NEC slate with a setback to Mount St. Mary's, Robert Morris won 12 of its final 15 league games to again gain home court advantage throughout the NEC Tournament.

The Colonials cruised to a 78-58 win over Fairleigh Dickinson to open the tourney as Boyd and sophomore forward Joe Falletta each scored 22 points. Combined, the duo hit 12 of their 22 shots from the field and finished 17-for-19 at the free-throw line.

Thanks to the win over the Knights, Robert Morris hosted Monmouth for the NEC Tournament championship game. Behind 21 points from senior guard Moses Moss and 14 points and six rebounds from junior forward Tyrone Steals, the Colonials posted a 71-66 victory.

Moss averaged 18.0 points in his two games of the NEC Tournament, shooting 66.7 percent (10-for-15) from the field and 87.5 percent (14-for-16) at the free-throw line. Moss, Steals, Boyd and Falletta each made the All-NEC Tournament Team.

In the NCAA Tournament, the Colonials traveled to Atlanta, Ga., to take part in the East Regional at The Omni. Robert Morris went toe-to-toe with Kansas before falling, 79-71. Boyd led RMU against the Jayhawks with 17 points, while sophomore forward Ricky Cannon added 13 points.

Throughout the year the Colonials were a balanced attack offensively, as five players averaged between 9.0 and 12.5 points per game. Dickens paced RMU in scoring and also grabbed 271 rebounds (9.0 per game), while Boyd contributed 12.3 points per contest and a team-high 100 assists.

1992 NCAA Tournament

19-12 Overall • 12-4 NEC • Regular-Season Champions

Advanced billing can be staggering. The result? Sometimes a major letdown. The 1991-92 RMU men's basketball squad was expected to do well, and to its credit, didn't let anyone down.

Head Coach Jarrett Durham had never seen expectations so high. Yet he knows that helped drive the Colonials.

"Expectations put tremendous pressure on the players and staff," he said. "Everyone wanted to do a good job. I don't think anyone, players and coaches included, would have felt the least bit satisfied had we not gone as far as we did."

That distance was in doubt as Robert Morris stumbled to a 2-6 start. The stretch included losses at nationally-ranked Florida State (No. 13), USC (No. 12) and Long Beach State. However, the Colonials turned a corner with their 84-81 setback at Long Beach State.

"That might have been our best team effort all year," freshman guard Bubba Donnelly said.

Robert Morris won four straight after it lost to Long Beach State, stumbled a bit before winning six straight and 10 of its final 11 games entering the NCAA Tournament.

Leading the way was guard Myron Walker, who became the first sophomore in league history to be named NEC Player of the Year. In 31 games, Walker paced the league in scoring (19.8 ppg) and established an RMU single-season school record with 614 points.

Walker was the main offensive force for the Colonials in the NEC Tournament, as he averaged 20.7 points in three games en route to Most Valuable Player (MVP) accolades. He scored 28 points in the championship game against Marist, including 19 in the second half to send RMU to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years.

Even with the offensive firepower of Walker, a veteran lineup helped the Colonials get over the top. Senior forward Ricky Cannon averaged 13.4 points and 6.0 rebounds per game, while senior point guard Wade Timmerson directed the attack, dishing out 204 assists (6.6 per contest) while scoring at a 11.6 points per game clip. Timmerson tied for 15th nationally in assists per game with Pittsburgh's Sean Miller.

In the NCAA Tournament, Robert Morris battled UCLA, trailing 26-22 at the break and 45-40 with 10:16 remaining before All-Americans Tracy Murray and Don MacLean helped the Bruins pull away.

"The feeling that we could have won that game will never leave me," Durham said. "I will always believe UCLA was ripe for an upset that night, but they kept their composure."

2008 NIT

26-8 Overall • 16-2 NEC • Regular-Season Champions

Coaching changes are never easy. While the 2007-08 campaign was anything but easy, the transition from Mark Schmidt to Mike Rice as the head coach provided an early glimpse of how special the year could be.

Robert Morris had Big East foe Seton Hall on the ropes in just its third game of the year, owning a 66-43 advantage at the 17:37 mark of the second half after a three-pointer from junior guard Jeremy Chappell. However, the Pirates provided their own thievery, sending the game to overtime and stealing a four-point win, 111-107, thanks to the help of a three-pointer from Jamar Nutter with just seven seconds left in the extra frame.

Despite the loss, the game proved RMU was here to stay. A little less than two months later, the Colonials had the opportunity to finish a job they were unable to against Seton Hall, posting a 57-51 victory at Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) member Boston College behind seniors A.J. Jackson and Tony Lee.

During the 2007-08 campaign, Robert Morris posted 14 straight victories, a school record, and claimed its first Northeast Conference regular-season championship since 1992 with an astounding 16-2 (.889) ledger in the circuit.

Lee put together one of the most complete seasons in school history en route to being named the 2008 NEC Player of the Year. He averaged 13.6 points per game and led the Colonials in both rebounding (6.6 rpg) and assists (6.4 apg). In addition to establishing a single-season school record for assists (217), Lee tied a Robert Morris career record for rebounds with 751.

Despite a setback to Mount St. Mary's in the semifinals of the NEC Tournament, RMU earned its inaugural bid to the NIT, where it battled Syracuse at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y.

Trailing, 51-40, with 17:41 to play, the Colonials climbed back to take a 71-70 edge at the 6:55 mark of the second half thanks to a three-pointer from Jackson before a late surge lifted the Orange to the win.

Chappell paced RMU in scoring on the year at 14.9 points per game while also adding an average of 4.8 rebounds per contest, 76 assists and 80 steals. Jackson added averages of 14.2 points and 5.6 rebounds per game as Robert Morris drilled 280 three-pointers.

"Nobody knew what was possible with our team except the guys that were in the locker room," Rice said. "When you're building a program, you need good players first. We had good players this year. Unfortunately, we didn't finish the job. But we grew as a team, and I think the future looks bright for our program."

2009 NCAA Tournament

24-11 Overall • 15-3 NEC • Regular-Season Champions

Many felt that the 2008-09 campaign could be a rebuilding one for Robert Morris. The Colonials, however, escalated the process.

Led by senior guard Jeremy Chappell, the Colonials again were a force in the Northeast Conference, marching to their second straight regular-season championship and No. 1 seed in the NEC Tournament.

A year after RMU had its hopes on an NCAA Tournament bid dashed by Mount St. Mary's, it was again the Mount that stood in the way. This time, it was in the championship game.

Arguably one of the best rivalries in league history, the championship tilt was another for the history books, as junior forward Dallas Green would connect on a jumper with 2.5 seconds left to help lift the Colonials to a 48-46 victory.

Chappell became the second consecutive player from Robert Morris to be named NEC Player of the Year, taking home the accolade after averaging 16.7 points and 6.3 rebounds per game. He also became the first player in league history to amass career totals of at least 1,500 points, 500 rebounds, 250 assists and 200 three-pointers.

In the NCAA Tournament, RMU traveled to Minneapolis, Minn., to battle No. 2 seed Michigan State. The Colonials battled the Spartans for the majority of the first half and into the second stanza before MSU surged to a 77-62 victory.

"We played our hardest," Chappell said. "Hopefully, the returning players come back next year with the same drive."

In his final game in a Robert Morris uniform, Chappell scored 11 points, helping him become the first player in school history to reach 100 double-figure scoring games.

The NEC Tournament championship game, however, will live on RMU lore for years to come.

"Because of how we won it and the way we won with Dallas making that shot," Rice said. "You remember the whole season, with all the ups and downs you have, but that will stick out in my memory so much just because of the way we finally did it and the atmosphere in which we did it. What I hope they take away from the season, though, is all of the hard work, all of the dedication, all of the sacrifices. They had an incredible last two weeks, and it's something they're always going to remember."

2010 NCAA Tournament

23-12 Overall • 15-3 NEC • Regular-Season Co-Champions

The one that got away.

Every program has had one, and for Robert Morris, its overtime loss to Villanova in the first round of the 2010 NCAA Tournament will stand the test of time.

To get to that point, however, the Colonials had to battle what many considered would be another rebuilding year. Gone from the program over the last two years were a trio of 1,000-point scorers, two Northeast Conference Player of the Year honorees and arguably one the best defensive players in program history.

No matter. Behind the sharp shooting of freshman guard Karon Abraham, the defensive play of senior guard Mezie Nwigwe and the inside toughness of seniors Rob Robinson, Dallas Green and Josiah Whitehead, the Colonials again climbed to the top of the NEC mountain.

Robert Morris earned its third consecutive NEC regular-season crown, sharing the title with Quinnipiac. Thanks to an 87-79 victory for the Bobcats at the Sewall Center in late February, it meant the road to the NEC Tournament championship would run through Hamden, Conn.

The Colonials cruised to the contest with home victories over Central Connecticut State and Mount St. Mary's before another tightly contested championship game, this time in front of 3,607 fans at the TD Bank Sports Center.

Redshirt freshman guard Velton Jones hit a jumper with 1:18 to go to snap a 48-48 tie, and a block by Green of a James Feldeine jumper with 10 seconds to play, followed by a pair of free throws, helped lift Robert Morris to a 52-50 win.

In the Big Dance, RMU owned a nine-point lead in the first half and also held a 55-47 advantage with under four minutes to play in regulation before the Wildcats visited the free-throw line 10 times in the final 3:57, converting nine, to send the game into the extra frame, 58-58.

Villanova scored the first six points of overtime to take control before a last ditch effort by the Colonials came up short. "They only lost on the scoreboard, Vern," legendary broadcaster Bill Raftery summed up just seconds after the defeat.

Abraham was named the 2010 NEC Rookie of the Year after leading RMU in scoring by supplying an average of 13.6 points per game. The only player from Robert Morris to average in double figures, Abraham shot 44.3 percent (85-for-192) from beyond the arc and 85.1 percent (126-for-148) at the free-throw line.

Nwigwe took home NEC Defensive Player of the Year accolades, while Robinson added averages of 9.8 points and 5.5 rebounds per game.

"I'm proud of this team," head coach Mike Rice said after RMU's loss to Villanova. "My heart goes out to each and every one of them. They just kept believing."

2012 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament

26-11 Overall • 13-5 NEC

Playing deep into March has become a common occurrence for Robert Morris in recent seasons, and in 2012, the Colonials ventured into unchartered waters.

RMU surged late in the 2011-12 season to grab third place in the Northeast Conference standings and for the fourth straight year advanced to the NEC Tournament championship game, only to fall short against LIU Brooklyn for the second straight year.

Despite the setback to the Blackbirds, Robert Morris was offered a spot in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT), something which head coach Andrew Toole saw value in.

"I thought our guys had a good enough season that they earned the right to continue playing," Toole said at the time of accepting the bid to the CIT.

Not only did Robert Morris earn the right to continue playing, the Colonials proved they belonged in the CIT.

In the first round at Indiana State, RMU fell behind the Sycamores, 46-35, with 14:25 to play before roaring back to garner a 67-60 win. The victory marked the program's first in a postseason tournament since its win over Georgia Southern in the play-in game of the 1983 NCAA Tournament.

The Colonials followed their win at Indiana State with a 69-51 victory at Toledo before the run came to an end in the quarterfinals in a 67-61 setback at Fairfield. Redshirt sophomore guard Coron Williams led Robert Morris in the CIT by averaging 12.0 points per game while shooting 48 percent (12-for-25) from the field, including 45 percent (9-for-20) from beyond the arc.

Redshirt junior guard Velton Jones, meanwhile, grew into his role as the heart and soul of the program. In being tabbed to the 2012 All-NEC First Team, Jones averaged 16.0 points per game and established single-season and career records for free throws.

RMU's run in the CIT helped the Colonials in more ways than one.

"Hopefully what our program accomplished this year, as well as in context of the five-year run that we've had, helps bring respect to Robert Morris and the NEC," Toole said. "Our guys should be proud of what they accomplished this season. Ultimately, we want to go to the NCAA Tournament. That's every teams goal at the beginning of the year. Yet, our guys continued to work hard, and playing in the CIT is something they'll remember."

A Winning Tradition …

#MoonMagic

24-11 Overall • 14-4 NEC • Regular-Season Champions

The goal of every program at the beginning of a season is to earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Robert Morris took the first step toward that goal during the 2012-13 regular-season, posting a 14-4 (.778) mark against Northeast Conference opponents to claim its 10th regular-season title.

The Colonials clinched the regular-season championship thanks to a 77-75 win at Bryant as junior guard Karvel Anderson scored 17 of his game-high 24 points in the second half, including a three-pointer with 18.9 seconds to play, to help lift RMU to the win.

Robert Morris had the opportunity to host games at the Charles L. Sewall Center as the No. 1 seed in the NEC Tournament, but the Colonials were tripped up in the semifinals, falling to Mount St. Mary's, 69-60.

Despite the loss, RMU had an automatic bid to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT), and when the selection show came around, the chances were good the Colonials would be visiting a high-major opponent. Check that. A high-major opponent would visit Robert Morris. In Moon Township. At the Sewall Center.

RMU welcomed Kentucky to the Sewall Center for the first round of the NIT, as the Wildcats were unable to host a game due to Rupp Arena being used for the NCAA Tournament.

Robert Morris became the talk of the college basketball world when it knocked off the defending national champions, 59-57, in front of 3,444 fans at "The Chuck," the largest crowd in school history.

Junior forward Mike McFadden's pair of free throws with 8.7 seconds remaining proved to be the difference, as Kyle Wiltjer's three-pointer at the buzzer was off the mark, sending the Sewall Center crowd into a frenzy.

Even though Robert Morris didn't qualify for the NCAA Tournament, its win over Kentucky was still vital.

"It's probably the greatest consolation prize you could possibly have," head coach Andrew Toole said.

RMU's 2013-14 campaign came to a close less than a week later with a 77-68 defeat at Providence in the second round of the NIT, but the final home game of the season at the Sewall Center for the Colonials will live on.

"For Kentucky to be able to come here and us get a victory, it's a great thing for our program and our university," redshirt senior guard Velton Jones said. "When I came to Robert Morris, I wanted to be part of something special throughout my career. Our team accomplished that."

RMU's TRIPLE-DOUBLES

In 2007-08, former guard Tony Lee (2004-08) became just the second Colonial in school history to record a triple-double, accomplishing the feat in back-to-back games in February of 2008. Lee is one of just six players in NCAA Division I history to record a triple-double in consecutive games, and he joined former Colonial Hosea Champine (1978-79) as the only players in Robert Morris men's basketball history to record the feat. A look at the four triple-doubles in the 37-year history of RMU Division I basketball:

- Hosea Champine (1978-1979)
  - 24 points, 11 rebounds, 11 assists vs. Delaware State (12/6/78)
  - 23 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists vs. East Tenn. State (2/15/79)
- Tony Lee (2004-08)
  - 13 points, 10 rebounds, 11 assists vs. LIU Brooklyn (2/9/08)
  - 12 points, 10 rebounds, 10 assists @ Central Connecticut State (2/14/08)
